

Appendix to the Regulations for Use: Implementation Regulations of the Medical Library of RWTH Aachen University for the use of the electronic infrastructure in accordance with the Regulations for Use of the Library of RWTH Aachen University dated 10.10.2010, amended 29.06.2020.

The special terms of use as well as the conditions of the Regulations for Use of the University Library of RWTH Aachen University apply to the use of iPads.

Pertaining to Section 11 of the Regulations for Use of the University Library of RWTH Aachen University: Use of iPads

- (1) The Medical Library of RWTH Aachen University provides Apple iPads including Apple Pencil and iPad Air Keyboard. Only students of RWTH Aachen University are entitled to borrow these. Users identify themselves by presenting their BlueCard.
- (2) The borrowed iPad including accessories is recorded in the library system and is listed in the borrower's library account. A special loan period applies: The iPad can be borrowed for a maximum of 60 library opening days. The loan period cannot be extended. The iPad must be returned to the service desk of the Medical Library at the end of the loan period. The iPad can only be borrowed and returned from Monday to Friday from 8.30 a.m. to 4.30 p.m.
- (3) Use is restricted to academic or study-related purposes. Private use (e.g. computer games) and commercial use of the iPad is not permitted. Basic knowledge of hardware and application programs is assumed.
- (4) The iPad must be handled carefully and in accordance with the regulations. It must not be passed on to third parties. The iPad is checked before being handed out and is made available for use in fault-free condition. The library must be informed immediately of any faults detected before or during use. Users must refrain from undertaking self-help.
- (5) The relevant legal provisions must be observed during use of the iPad, in particular the Network Regulations of the Rhenish-Westphalian Technical University of Aachen of 09.07.1997 in the version of the 2nd Order amending the Network Regulations dated 04.10.2010. Violations will be sanctioned and may result in exclusion from use if sufficiently severe in nature.
- (6) The duties of care and principles of liability set out in Section 15 of the Regulations for Use of the University Library of RWTH Aachen University apply accordingly.
- (7) The University Library of RWTH Aachen University excludes any liability for the backup of user data, for defective hardware or software and for defective software installations.
